

Catoosa County School System is a Charter System in the state of Georgia. In Charter Systems, each school has its own local school governance team composed of parents, teachers, community members, and the principal. The responsibilities of the school governance team include approval of charter funds budget, approval of fundraisers, recommendations for school budget, review and approval of the school improvement plan, and school calendar input.

Heritage Middle School’s Governance Team meets once a month and all meetings are open to the public. The agenda and minutes for the LSGT meetings are available on eBoard.
